Encyclopedia Live Talk by Laurin Goad Davis

Sunday, November 10 at 2:00 p.m.

At the Centre Furnace Mansion, State College, PA

RSVP Required

Visit CentreHistory.org or call 814-234-4779.

Laurin Goad Davis is an architectural historian working in the Architecture and Landscape Architecture Library at Penn State. She's written on school facilities and women in architecture. In her current role, she creates metadata for the Central Pennsylvania Architecture and Landscape Architecture Digital Collection and works on other local architecture projects for the Libraries.

Her talk will focus on Philip Hallock's efforts to bring modern design elements to Centre County. Discussion will include his houses as well as commercial buildings. The talk will also touch on his early training and later efforts to introduce students to Modernism and international trends.

This program is part of the Encyclopedia Live History Talk Series of the Centre County Encyclopedia of History & Culture, an online resource sponsored by the Centre County Historical Society.

This program is free to the public and will be held at the Centre Furnace Mansion in State College, PA.

RSVPs are required and may be made by calling 814-234-4779 or reserving online at CentreHistory.org under "Upcoming Events & Programs" on the home page. For general information and program updates, visit www.CentreHistory.org.
